

What do you know about New York?

Read the statements and mark them true or false.

Then listen to the answers and check/corretc your answers!

1. New York City has more inhabitants than Austria.
2. New York City ist he capital of the USA.
3. One of the fifty states (in the USA) is also called New York.
4. The UN headquarters are in New York City.
5. Manhattan is one of the five districts of New York.
6. The Statue of Liberty is in Manhattan.
7. The Statue of Liberty is so large that 12 people can stand inside the torch the woman is holding.
8. The statue was given to the US by the people of Great Britain.
9. New York is called the Big Apple because a long time ago farmers grew lots of apples in Manhattan.
10. America's highest skyscraper is New York.
11. New York is the largest city in the USA.
12. The first Europeans who came to Manhattan were from Holland.
13. Geographically speaking, New York is as far south as Rome.
14. The most famous bridge in New York is the Golden Gate Bridge.

True	False